RE: Community Planning & Partnerships
Expression of Interest

The Simcoe Muskoka Catholic District School Board (SMCDSB) recognizes and encourages opportunities with various levels of government and community agencies as potential community partners.

- i) As a Community Partner with a current or future interest in a specific project recommendation identified in the current Long Term Pupil Accommodation Plan, please submit to the Board a written expression of interest based on the criteria identified under Section 3: Partnership Eligibility Criteria, of the Community Planning & Partnerships Procedure LE-27.

- ii) If you are a Community Partner with a future interest in a specific area or school, please complete the following information so that the Simcoe Muskoka Catholic District School Board may keep the information on file in the event that future Long Term Pupil Accommodation Plans identify a project that could be compatible. The Board will advise your organization of the status of project opportunities at that time.

Organization/Company: _____

Area / School interested in: _____

Intended use of space: _____

Is funding available: _____

If yes, Timing of the Funding: _____
